

Cybersecurity Outlook - Northern Europe

Following a severe cyber breach, an organization's share price falls by an average of ...

This is equivalent to a €135 million loss of FTSE 100 company value

In extreme cases, cyber breaches have reduced a company's value by up to 15%

UK Cyber-Value Connection Survey 2017

An effective cybersecurity strategy combines intelligent technologies, threat intelligence and skilled cybersecurity professionals — True Intelligence

Only 40% of malware is captured by virus protection software and firewalls

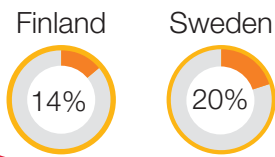

CGI's internal findings

Respondents globally 1434

Protecting through cybersecurity is a trend affecting their organization

Cybersecurity a trend affecting their budgets this year

79% of organizations Northern European countries say they have a formal security policy in place.

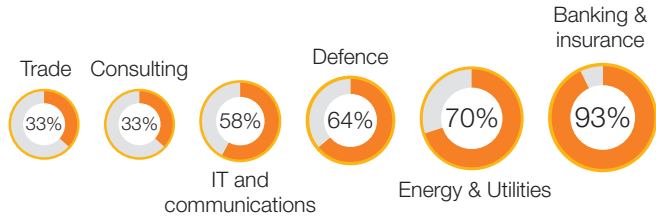

CGI Client Global Insight Report 2018 — Cybersecurity-specific findings

Do not have a formal security policy in place: Finland 30% and globally on average 11%

Has your organization faced one of the following kinds of cyber breaches during the past two years?

Have a Chief Information Security Officer (CISO) or security organization in place.

75% of Finnish respondents estimated that the impact of a cyber breach on their organization would be harmful

Whose cybersecurity breach became public

70% Consider it more likely than unlikely that their organizations face a cyber attack within the next year

57% Consider it more likely than not that their organizations experienced a cyber attack without it being discovered

The State of Cybersecurity in Finland 2018 Survey

Ensuring security in everything you do

CGI Offering

Identifying the risks
Assessments, health checks, audits, discovery, classification, strategy

Building secure outcomes
Policies, standards, compliance frameworks, secure systems design and engineering, secure software life cycle, secure digital labs

Operating with confidence
Managed security services, detection and response, intelligent SOC, threat hunt, AI and advanced analytics